

The new San Diego USBC Association Board of Directors is pleased to announce that Lynn Graves has been selected from the five candidates for Association Manager.

Lynn has excellent credentials. Amongst her many committee positions, she has been a league secretary for over thirty years and has held every office in the San Diego Women's Bowling Association except for Sgt-At-Arms. She has been the San Diego Women's Bowling Association Secretary for the past eighteen years and has been on the California Women's Bowling Association Board of Directors for eight years.

If you have any questions or issues relating to your bowling leagues, feel free to contact Lynn for assistance. She can be reached by phone at 619.697.3334 or by email at lgraves@sandiegobowling.com
